JURY QUESTIONNAIRE

PRELIMINARY INSTRUCTIONS

Please read the following instructions carefully before completing any portion of this questionnaire. Please print your juror number in the space provided at the top of each page. Please answer each and every question by circling your response or by providing the information requested. Please answer each question fully. Some questions have more than one part.

YOU ARE SWORN TO GIVE TRUE AND COMPLETE ANSWERS TO ALL QUESTIONS IN THIS QUESTIONNAIRE. This questionnaire is designed to help simplify and shorten the jury selection process. The purpose of the questionnaire is to determine whether prospective jurors can decide this case impartially based upon the evidence presented at trial and the legal instructions given by the presiding judge. The questions are not intended to inquire unnecessarily into personal matters. Although some of the questions may appear to be of a personal nature, please understand that the Court and the parties must learn enough information about each juror's background and experiences to select a fair and impartial jury.

Please answer all questions to the best of your ability. If you do not know the answer to a question then write, "I don't know." There are no "right" or "wrong" answers, only truthful answers. If you have strong feelings about this case in general, please do not hesitate to share them. Although you may be a perfectly good juror in another case, this may or may not be the right case for you to sit on as an impartial juror. Both parties have the right to get honest answers and to hear your true opinions. Do not discuss the case or your answers with anyone. It is important that the answers be yours alone. Remember, you are sworn to give true and complete answers to all questions.

If you need extra space to answer any question, please use the extra blank sheets of paper included at the end of the questionnaire. Be sure to indicate on the blank page the number of the question you are answering. Do not write anything on the back of any page.

DO NOT DISCUSS YOUR QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS OR THE CASE WITH ANYONE, NOW OR UNTIL FURTHER INSTRUCTED BY THE COURT. You should not discuss the questions or answers with fellow jurors. It is very important that your answers be your own individual answers. More broadly, do not discuss the case with anyone, including the lawyers (except in the presence of the Court), your fellow jurors, your family, your friends, or anyone else. Do not communicate about the case in any way, including telephone, e-mail, any social media app or website (such as Facebook), any communications app or website (such as Twitter). You must also avoid reading or hearing about the case (or anyone participating in the case) in newspapers, in magazines, on the radio or television, or on the Internet.

DO NOT DO YOUR OWN RESEARCH ON THE CASE. Do not conduct any research into the case (or anyone participating in the case) at any time before your entire jury service has been completed. That includes performing Internet searches, asking other people about the case, reading news stories, books, or reports about the case, or watching films or television programs that relate to the case. Do not read, watch, or listen to any information about this case or the individuals participating in the case. If you are exposed to any such information, please immediately alert the Court.

If you believe that any of your answers contain private information that could embarrass you or otherwise seriously compromise your privacy and wish to request that the Court keep them confidential and not distribute them beyond the judge and counsel, you may indicate that on one of the blank pages at the end of this form. (Please identify the specific answer or answers that you believe should remain confidential.) After a jury has been selected, all copies of your responses to the questionnaire will be returned to the Court.

SUMMARY OF THE CASE

The Court is selecting a jury for a two- to three-week trial commencing on Monday, January 24, 2022. Thus, it should end no later than about Friday, February 11, 2022.

This is a criminal case. The defendant, Michael Avenatti, has been charged in an indictment with wire fraud and aggravated identity theft. The indictment is not evidence. It simply contains the charges—referred to as “counts”—that the Government intends to prove to the jury at trial beyond a reasonable doubt.

The indictment contains two counts. Count One charges that Mr. Avenatti devised a scheme to defraud his client, Stephanie Clifford, who is also known as “Stormy Daniels,” by taking for himself payments due to Ms. Daniels pursuant to her book contract. The Government further alleges that Mr. Avenatti then used those payments for his own purposes and falsely represented to Ms. Daniels that the payments had not been made. Count Two charges that Mr. Avenatti used Ms. Daniels’s identity—and, more specifically, her name and signature—without her permission, on a document in which he allegedly falsely represented to Ms. Daniels’s book agent that Ms. Daniels had given authorization for the payments to be sent by wire to an account controlled by Mr. Avenatti.

Mr. Avenatti has pled not guilty to both charges and denies these allegations. Mr. Avenatti is presumed innocent and that presumption of innocence continues unless or until you determine that the Government has proved each element of the crimes charged beyond a reasonable doubt.
